

SOUTHSIDE CHAPTER

Inaugural Meeting

The Polish American Police Association of Chicago and Illinois (P.A.P.A.) is a social and fraternal organization for police officers who are of Polish and Slavic descent. P.A.P.A. encompasses members from more than 50 local, state, county and Federal law enforcement agencies within the State of Illinois and across the country. Civilians from all communities and professions with strong ties to their heritage and/or law enforcement are welcomed as Associate members. P.A.P.A. currently has over 400 active and associate members. We would like to invite all active, retired, full and part time law enforcement, civilian staff, attorneys, judges, and all supporters of the law enforcement community.
